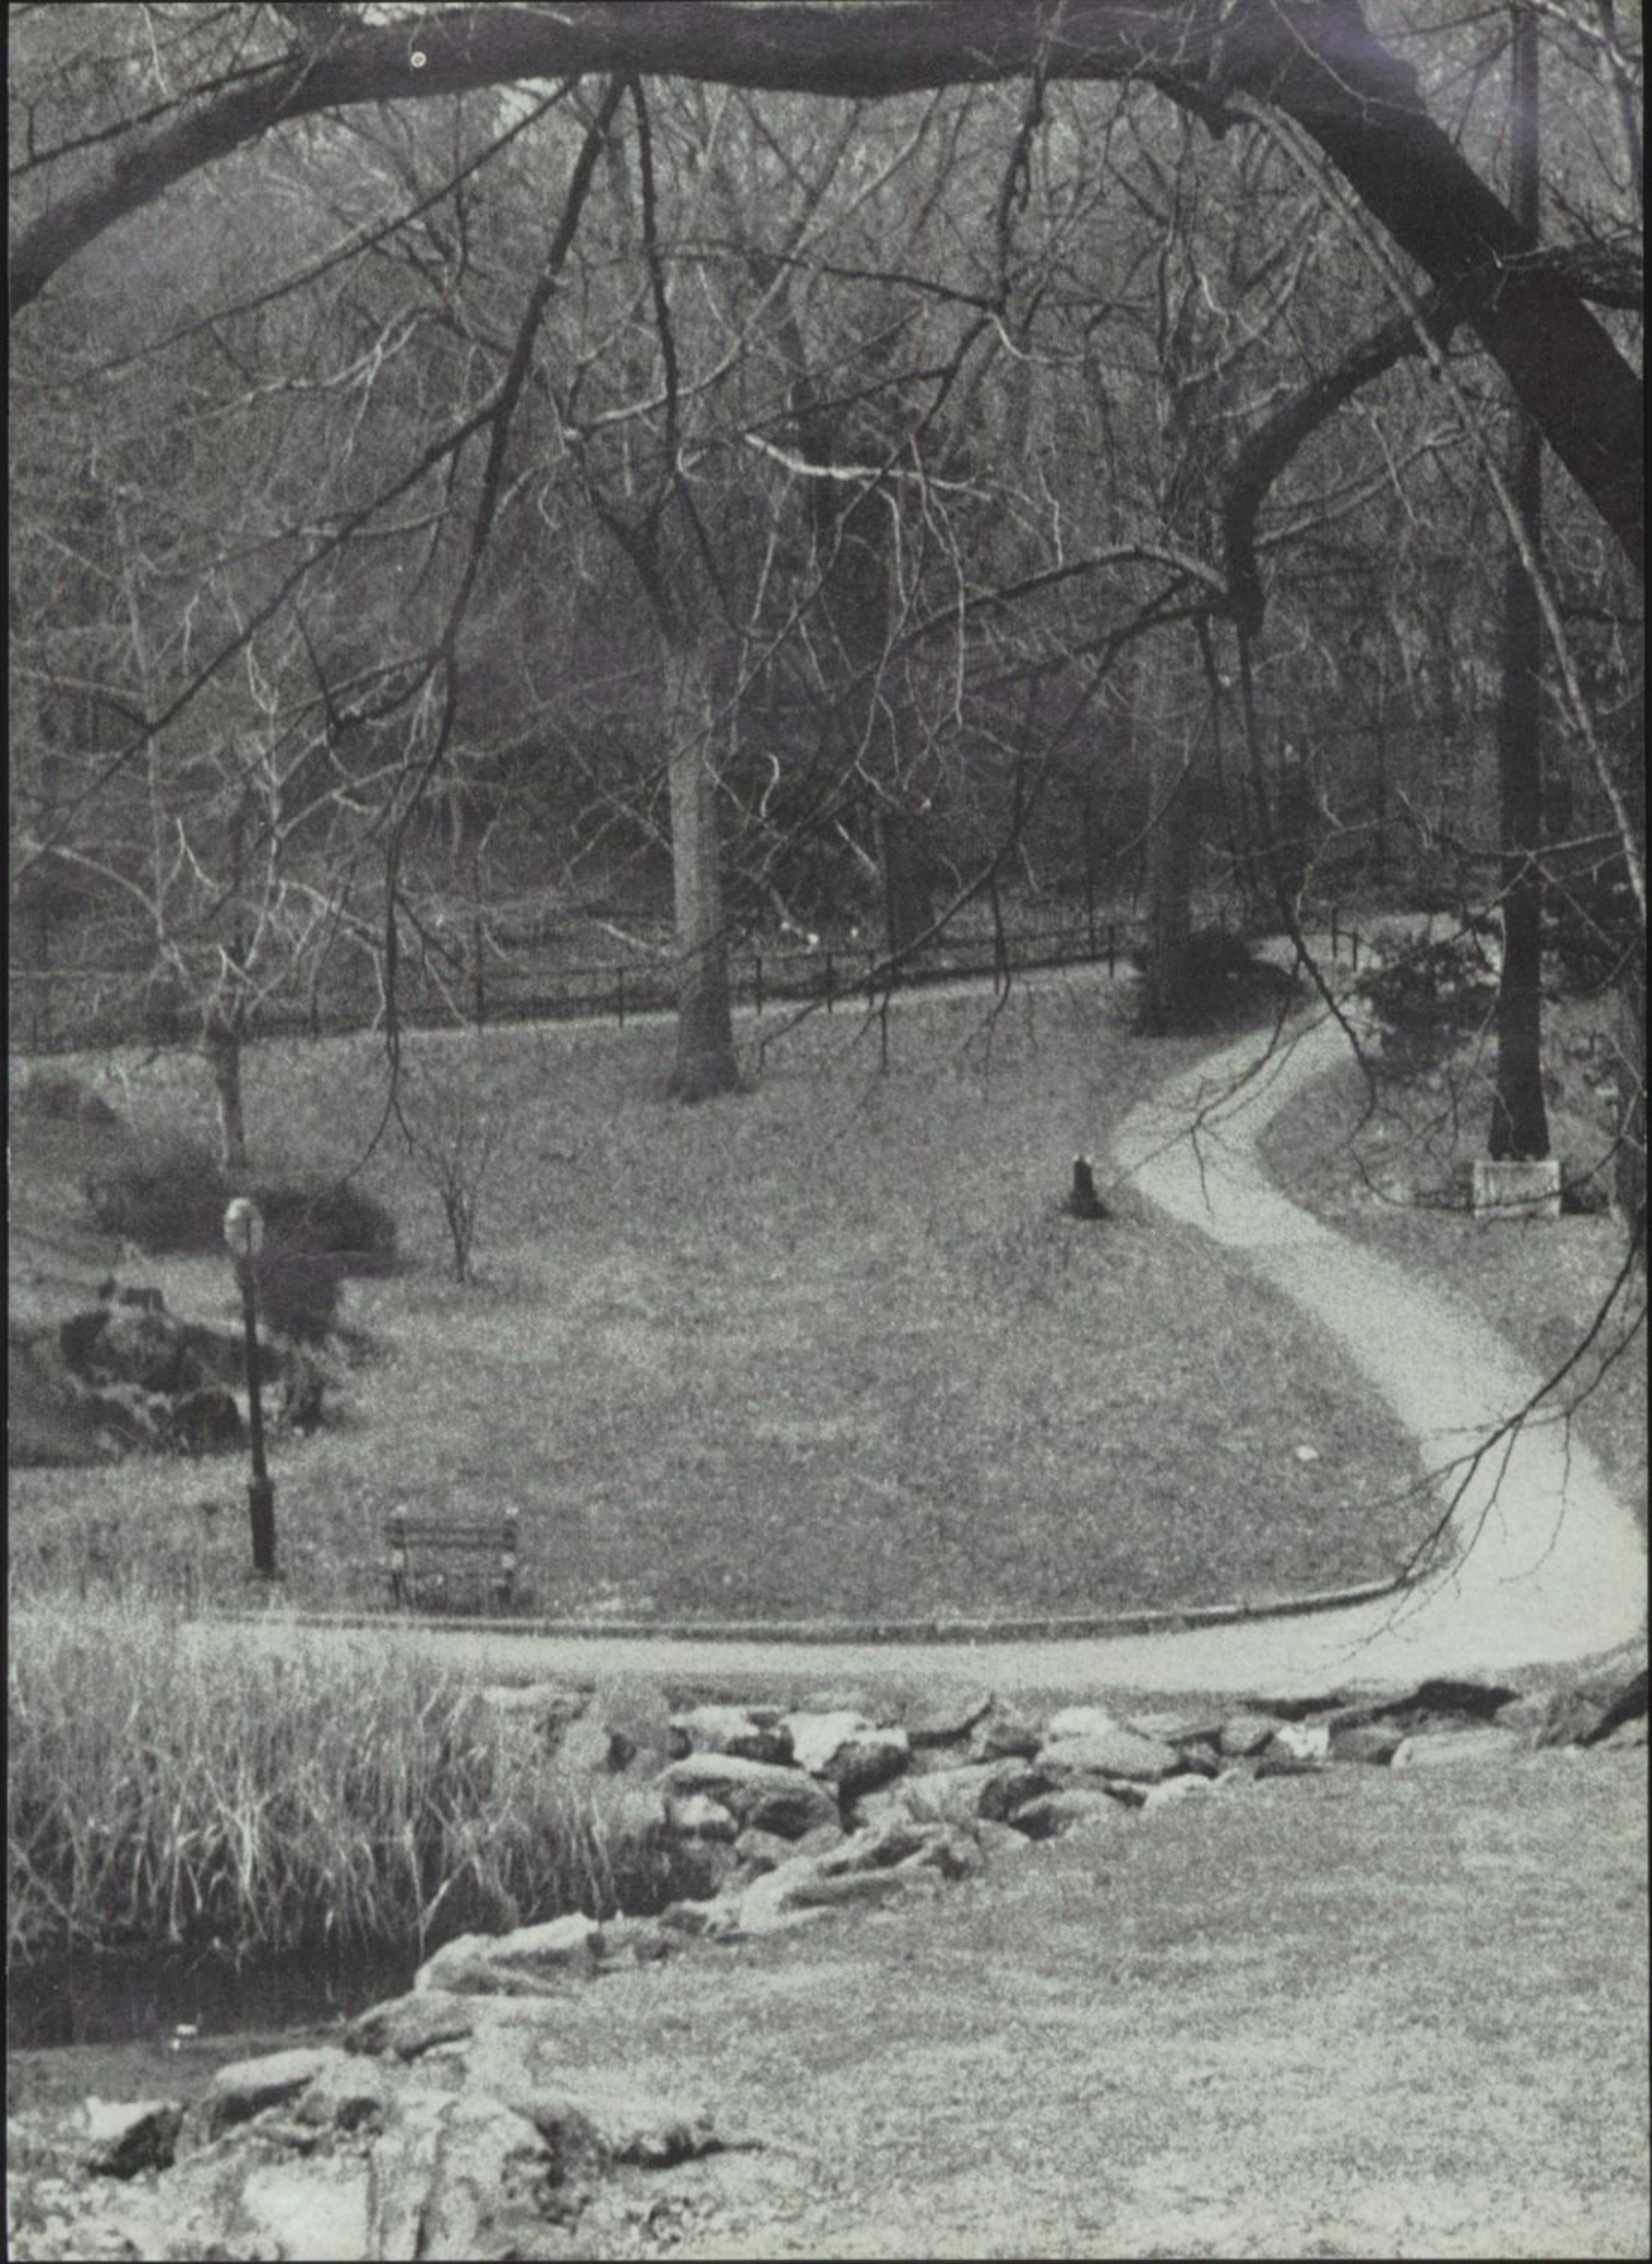
"PATHWAYS"



Foreword

Chosen as the theme for this year's ANTHONIAN is "PATHWAYS". Not just for the obvious analogy that we see ourselves on a "pathway" as part of life's journey but also for the many facets that are made present as one journeys on any pathway. Much in the image of Robert Frost's poem, "The Road Not Taken", we wish we could see far ahead to what our journey will include, but since our vision is limited we depend on the pathway itself to reveal our life's direction in the form of -

THE FACULTY-

- our faculty who we see as "signposts" along the way; giving us direction. Not making the choices for us as to which direction to take, but more importantly, enabling us to develop our own sense of choice and direction.

and the path reveals life's direction in the form of our fellow

SENIORS -

- our senior sisters, who as companions on the same pathway, are there to support us. Never walking alone, there is much comfort in the shared experience of the journey. To learn from one another, to support one another and to care for one another enables us to walk always forward, no matter how difficult the path may be.

and the path reveals life's direction in the form of our sister

- our junior sisters are striking out on their own paths and forging new roads. But there is the awareness that some will walk on the same path trod by us, (perhaps in the very same steps). When one realizes that others will walk in our footsteps, you begin to appreciate the importance of being a leader - of giving direction - of looking out for future travelers on lifes' road.

and the path reveals life's direction in the form of our

ACADEMICS -

- our academics were our primary reason for choosing the particular pathway we are on now. Although this particular pathway is only a two year journey, the skills learned here will affect all our future journeys.

and the path reveals life's direction in the form of our

STUDENT ACTIVITIES AND LIFE -

- it is the activities along the way, that at times cause us to stop, look and appreciate the beauty and wonders of this path. There are often diversions; awareness of natures' wonders; and the realization that at times we have no control over the events our pathway reveals to us.

And so to the Faculty, our fellow Seniors, our sister Juniors, our Academic pursuits, and our Activities that are all integral part of our journey on this pathway we call Saint Anthony's Commercial School, we say "THANK YOU". "Thank You" for making this journey as rich as it is, and for making us aware of the wonders of this "PATHWAY".

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that, the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

DEDICATION

On every journey there are those companions who enter on to our pathway to walk with us but for a short time, and then they depart to charter their own paths. Their departing from us can not erase or diminish the value of the time spent with us. For they often leave behind many truths that are not discovered until the absence occurs.

We remain richer and fuller for the time traveled together. Such is the reality of our relationship with Mrs. Vernall Williams, who for four years walked this pathway with the girls who chose Saint Anthony's for their journey. Their journey, as was ours, was made richer in knowledge, fuller in virtue, and deeper in self-awareness because of the time spent with Mrs. Williams. And then her absence was felt.

Mid-way through last years academic season, we were informed that Mrs. Williams was expecting her third child. It was not until the end of the year, as she was prepared to leave, that we were told she would not be returning for the 1986-87 school year. So our travel companion was to travel a new path, a path that would take her from ours, and lead her in her own direction.

"ALL PATHS LEAD TO THE SAME GOAL:

TO CONVEY TO OTHERS WHAT WE ARE."

Departures are part of every journey, but Mrs. Williams' departure, although tearful, was celebrated in a most fitting manner. The birth of a child would not be complete without the traditional "Baby Shower". And so, on the last day of her time with us, both the A.M. and P.M. sections executed very memorable and fitting "showers". Gifts were given, tears were shed, hugs and kisses were exchanged. And Mrs. Williams said "Good-bye" to continue her journey on a path that would take her from us.

That new path included the birth of a son, Whitney Eugene, born on June 3, 1986.

One year later, as the end of our pathway here at Saint Anthony's begins to come into view, one can't help reflecting and remembering those who touched us during our time here. Although there are many to be thankful for, we the graduating class of 1987 would like to express our appreciation to you, Mrs. Williams, for all you gave to us, So it is with great pride that we dedicate this years ANTHONIAN to you.

We love you. The Senior Class of 1987

From Season to Season

. . . . all good gifts

Catholic Schools Week

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS TOUCH THE FUTURE

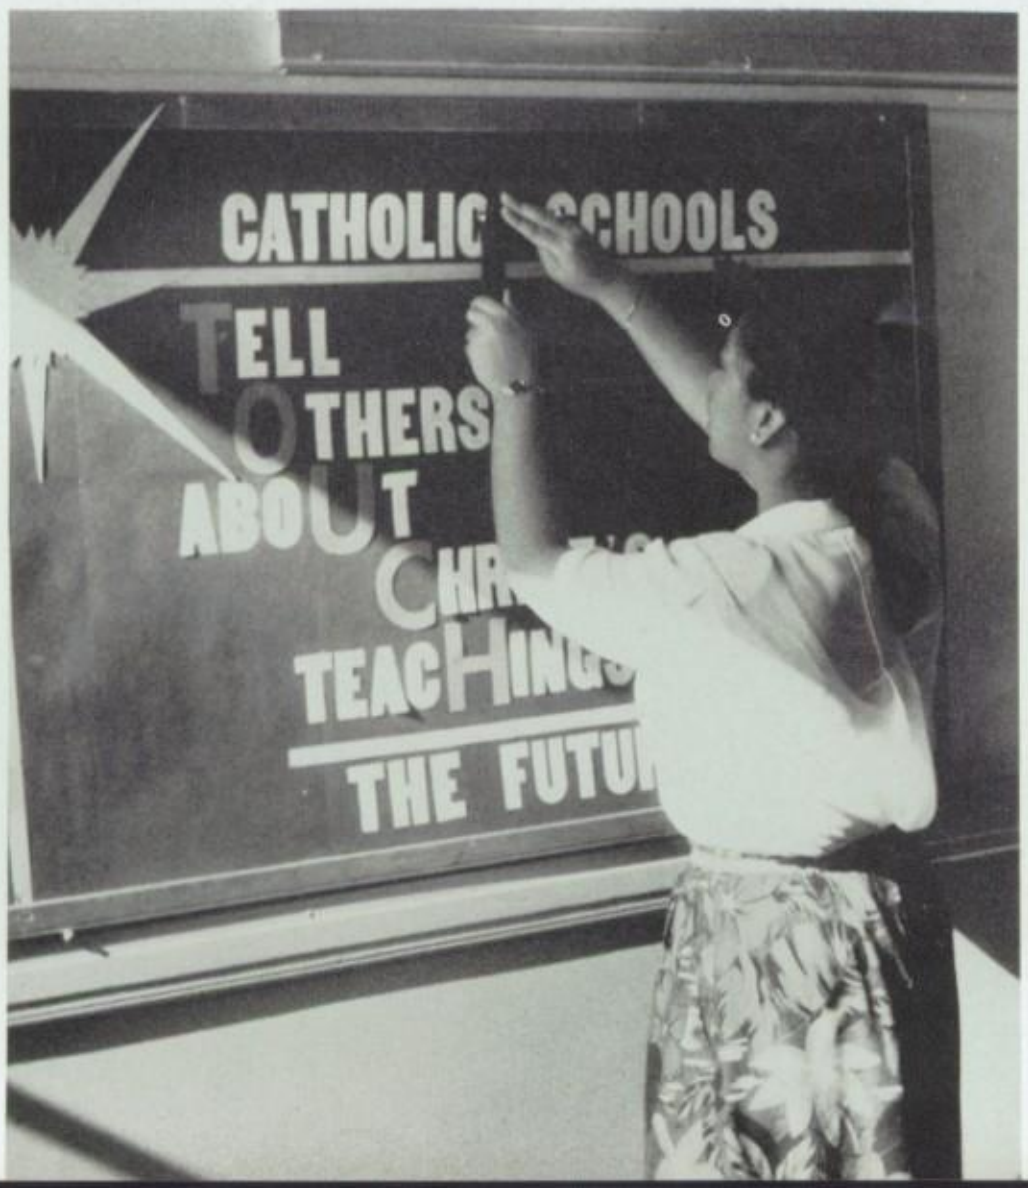
At the beginning of every school year, the Archdiocese of New York sets aside a week to celebrate our Catholic School System. It is a time for us to recall the achievements of the past, to set new goals, and to explore ways in which we can best accomplish our objectives. The observance of Catholic Schools Week motivates us to focus our attention on those goals, to take stock of our accomplishments and to invite our families, friends and communities to join us in our celebration, in assessment, and planning.

The theme of Catholic Schools Week for this year, was one that bestowed encouragement, hope and inspiration on all our endeavors. "CATHOLIC SCHOOLS TOUCH THE FUTURE". This statement is an affirmation of the pervading philosophy of our school: to provide quality education permeated by Gospel values, academic excellence acquired in a school environment that is a Faith community characterized by worship, witness and service.

Without hesitation, we assert that Saint Anthony Commercial School, and the skills and values learned here, will help us not only 'touch the future', but will help us to make the most of the future.

In a week-long celebration that included gatherings in prayer and worship, preparation and sharing, our awareness of who we are and who we hope to be was focused. The week ended in a spectacular gesture of our hopes to 'touch the sky', through a balloon launch that included every student in every Catholic School throughout the Archdiocese.

Patricia Baronowski



With all the preparations completed, every student in the Catholic School System in the Archdiocese of New York, readied to release their balloon. At exactly 2:15 P.M. on Thursday, October 31st, over 100,000 balloons filled the skies over Manhattan. (Next page)

Ring Day

I pledge, in accepting the ring of Saint Anthony's Commercial School, to be faithful to all that this ring symbolizes.

My school ring is symbolic of many things. It is round for the circle of everlasting friendships I have made at school. Its gold signifies that my life must be rich in virtue. The name of the school engraved upon my ring is for me a pledge of loyalty to Saint Anthony's School. The year 1987, on one side of the stone, is a sign of things accomplished. The year 1987, on the other side, represents a challenge to still greater accomplishments in the future. The bright blue stone in my ring reminds me that I must always, and everywhere, be a true child of Mary.

May I always live up to the ideals symbolized by my Class Ring.

Dear Graduates:

We, the faculty of St. Anthony's Commercial School, wish to extend to you our sincere wishes for your future, filled with love and peace.

The paths which most of you have followed were similar. The journey through infancy was chosen and directed by your parents. As you advanced to your school days, other routes were taken which eventually brought you to St. Anthony's Commercial School.

In the two years we spent here, many new roads have been presented to you. Your future is now in your hands for it depends on your choice of a career. Your choice will take you through various avenues as you face the future.

It is the wish of all of us that God will bless all of you on your journey. Our prayer is that the final path you select will lead you to the Father and Mary, our Mother.

Sincerely in Chirst,

Sister Bernadette

To My Daughter Kim,

We finally made it, Kim. It is written that if you try hard enough, you will succeed. You, Kim, have proven this statement to be true. I have seen you struggle, and my heart was with you every step of the way. We have had our differences, but our love for each other carried us through. I wish the very best, Kim, in all your endeavors. I am very proud of you.

I love you.

To Patty:

Patty, your mother and I would like you to know how happy and proud of you we both are. Through the years, the good times and bad times, we will always have the joy and happiness that you've given to us. As we are sure you will remember these times also. To see you grow from a child into a beautiful young lady has meant a lot to both of us. As the years go by and times may get rough, just remember your mother and I are always your best friends, and your parents as well. We will always be there for you whenever you need us, through good times and bad. That is what parents are for. We would just like to give you one piece of advice and it will come in handy. When you become a parent, it's forever and a life-time job. Many times it may seem to be a thankless job. When we can have a daughter turn out to be a lovely young lady, it is surely worth all the sacrifices that we have made through the years. When you decide to become a parent, make sure that you are the very best that you can be. One day you will see and understand what we are trying to say. Now that you are nearing the end of your High School Years, the hard work you have put in will start to pay off. Remember, you will be going out into the world of grownups, and you will have to answer for yourself. Just be the best of yourself. You are what matters. We hope that one day you will understand what we are trying to tell you. As you start to take a big step into the future, just remember we are there for you. Good Luck, Patty, and all our love goes with you. Once again, we are so very proud of you. We all love you.

Love,

Mom and Dad

To my Sweetheart
Tony Sweet:

You've shown me some of the best times of my life. I want us to continue making each other happy through the years. You've shown me what it is to really care for and love someone. You've made me happier than I've ever been. We've shared good times and bad times.. ....Through it all, we've always pulled through. You've given me new ideas and thoughts about the word boyfriend.

To Patty, the girl of my dreams,

Everytime I look into your eyes I begin to realize how lucky I am to be in love with someone as special and as beautiful as you. The feelings I have for you are without a doubt feelings of true love and these feelings will never change.

You are the girl of my dreams and I never want to stop loving you, Toots!

Love always and forever,

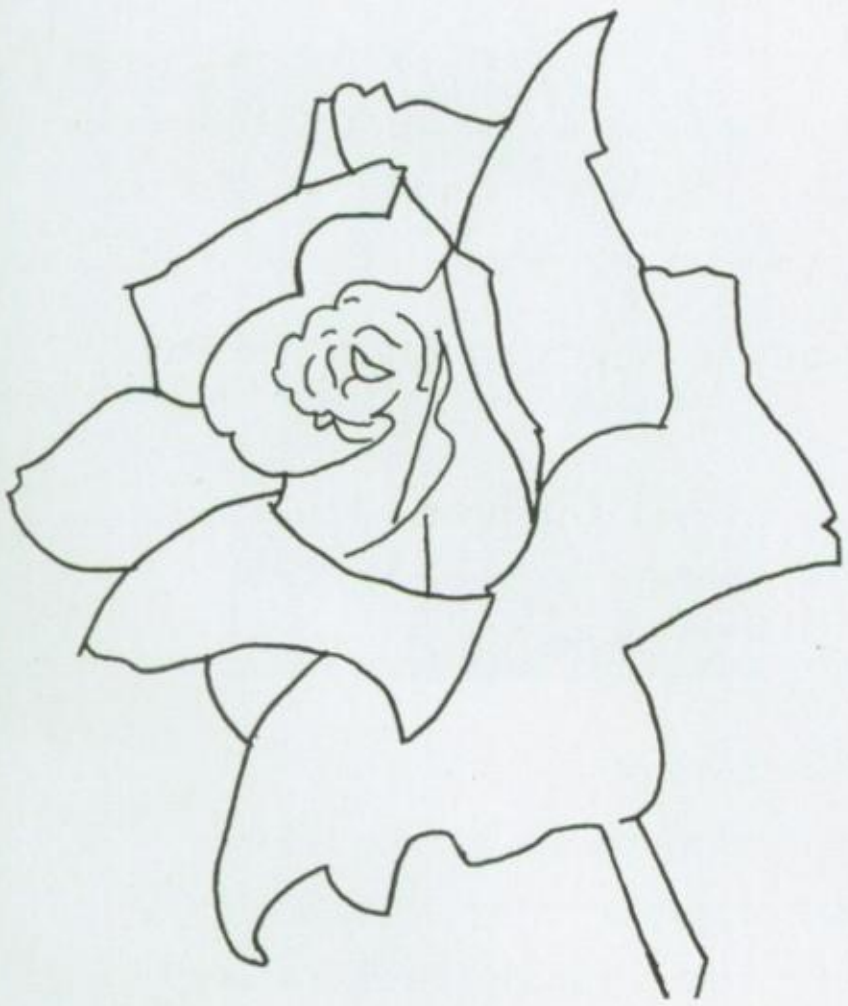
To my wonderful daughter Patty,

Patty, through the nine months I carried you, the dreams, the plans, the hopes I had for you, I have seen come true. I watched you mature from a young child into a mature beautiful caring young lady. All mothers have dreams and hopes for their daughters or sons, but deep down I knew you would make mine come true. There are times it doesn't seem I care or notice, but I do. But one day you will be a mother and you as a mother will notice that the things I said and did were because I cared. A special bond will always be there. It is a life long lasting bond. The happiness and joy and the tender loving care I have for you will always be there. Now that you have become a mature young adult, you will learn what I have tried to impart to you. As you soon will join the world of grownups, I know you will apply all the things that you have learned both at school and at home. Just remember, Patty, My caring, My love, and our beautiful bond that we have will always keep us together even when we are apart. The tears of happiness I will feel and shed for you on your special day will be 18 years of joy and of happiness we have shared together. These are things we two will have together forever. So my daughter, Patty, with great pride and joy and with happiness I wish you the very best of luck in your new life, and always remember I am there for you no matter what time or day or night. So with all my love, I send you out into the world and I have no fear about you making it. Patty, the very best to you and Good Luck. Love, Mom
I love you.



To Patty:

I have seen you grow from a strange little kid into an even stranger adult. I do not know where the time has gone. It seems like only yesterday we were going to school together, jumping rope, and playing silly games. Now you're grownup and doing things on your own and doing them your own way. Though some people may not agree with your methods, remember I always will, no matter what. Patty, I just want you to know that I will always be here for you regardless of your problem, or even if you just want to talk. I wish you and Tony the best of luck now and in the future. Just remember, try to listen to what people have to say, but always do what your heart tells you.

Love ya,

Ann Marie

To our dear baby Daniela,

We know you're no longer a baby, but you'll always be ours! You've grown into quite a young lady. Beautiful, caring, vivacious and witty. Congratulations on your graduation. We knew you could achieve any goal you set your mind to. We wish you all the happiness you desire and deserve. Be patient and persevering and always look at the bright side of things. Life is beautiful and precious. Make it count and enjoy it to the fullest. When things go wrong remember there's always tomorrow and tomorrow!

Will love you always,

A SISTER LIKE YOU.....

As we grow older,
I learn to appreciate you
more and more.

When we were just kids,
we had our disagreements which were only natural,
but even then I knew that you were a very special friend.

Throughout the years
you have shown me affection and have always been there when I needed someone.

Together we have shared... secrets, laughter, and the joys of growing up.
And in that time I hope that I have returned to you some of the love you have given to me. I am forever grateful to have
a sister like you.

Thanks for always being there... I couldn't have gotten through the bad times without you.

I LOVE YOU.

It's been over two years since we have been together and it only feels like a day. You are the world to me and I hope it will last a lifetime. Every day my admiration grows stronger towards the feelings I have for you. Only wishing we can share our goals and ambitions together forever.
I have never cared for or enjoyed being with someone as sweet as you.

Wishing you the best of luck.

Dear Mom and Dad,

You have succeeded at being parents and now you are succeeding at being grandparents. I want to take this time to thank you for putting up with me and for always being there when I needed you the most. Thank you for pushing me to be the best I can, because without you two behind me I would not have reached this far. You understand me even though I don't show it enough, I love you both very much. So keep up the good work. Nicole and Melissa will appreciate it just as much when they're older.

My dearest Rita,

I just want to tell you how much I love you. You had to overcome some obstacles to get this far, and we both know that it wasn't easy, but together we have made it.

It is because of you that I know what love is and I will love you forever. Together we can accomplish anything and I am honored that you let me spend these good times with you.

You are my life

You are my love

You are my Bubbles

But most of all I am yours, forever.

In the next year will be separated, separated for us and for our futures, but I want you to know that as we part you will be closer to me than ever.

I am so proud of you and I want all the best for you in life. I also know one thing, that as long as we have each other we have the best in life.

I LOVE YOU FOREVER,

Michelle

Remember, our lot in life is to learn; Nothing else really matters. A person of knowledge lives by acting; Not thinking of acting, or by thinking, "What will we think we finish acting?" A person of knowledge chooses a path with faith and heart and follows it. Then he looks and rejoices and knows that nothing is more important than knowledge. For this reason you must continue your quest for knowledge, for this is merely as small step on the ladder of life.

Continue your journey may it be long and prosperous.

To our precious little daughter Maritza,

As you prepare for the great ceremony on your graduation day, remember how proud and happy you have made us feel--before, now, and forever.

This grand event is not your final big step. It seems that you are leaving behind your whole childhood for greater events.

However, scary it may be, you will just be commencing on your big road to many more successful accomplishments.

Every individual has a special meaning in this world, no matter how small or large.

Therefore, it is up to you. As you are going out into the large world by yourself. To find your own intrinsic value and with God's help enlarge it to the fullest and best use.

Thank God for letting us share in your happiness and the happiness of your classmates.

Love you always,
Mom and Dad

Dear Mom and Dad,

Growing up makes me remember all the good times we had like: going to the park; our summer house in Long Beach. The times we all shared together as one happy family. Now those are only memories of a happy childhood.

Life is more complicated as I grow up and on my way to being on my own. There are all kinds of problems to deal with and a great deal of responsibilities to yourself and to others.

I know you two will always give me the love and support you have always given me in the past no matter what I decided to do. No matter what happens my love for the both of you will never end. Because of the two of you I am where I am today. .....I love you both very much!!!

Love your daughter,
Maritza

To my one and only love Jimmy,

From the first night we were together, I knew you were the one for me. Step by step together made us closer to falling in love.

Each day I see you makes me fall more in love with you than the day before. With you I have learned what true love really is. I hope the future holds as much happiness as it has given us this past year.

I will always love you,

Maritza

Dear Maritza,

I have never been so happy until I met you. The more I see of you, the more I love you. You're my everything and when you're not with me I don't feel complete because you're my other half. Since our love is everlasting and unbreakable, you are all I want and need.

I will always love you,

Jimmy
